Getting to Know You – Deb, Beau,
and Staff Highlights

“Self-confidence is the best outfit, rock it
and own it.”

TRIP REVIEW – Our visit to the Folger Shakespeare Library to see Not Just Another Day Off: Injustice is Here was a learning experience for all. The actors shared a lot of history through the readings of speeches by John Brown, Ida B. Wells, Angela Davis, and Martin Luther King Jr. We also heard poems by Dr. DaMaris Hill from her collection A Bound Woman is a Dangerous Thing.

DEB, BEAU, STAFF HIGHLIGHTS

Cameren Sitney – Cameren is a 16-year-old sophomore at Suitland High School. She loves to draw, sing, and watch TV. Her favorite places to vacation are New York or California and she aspires to one day be a graphic designer, illustrator, photographer, film director, and/or singer. Check out her artwork above. Please say hi to Cameren and ask her what her favorite TV show is.

Joshua Sanders – Joshua is a 17 year-old junior at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. He loves to play basketball and vacation in Hawaii. When he is finished high school he wants to join the military and has aspirations to be in the Air Force. Please say hi to Joshua and ask him who his favorite basketball team is.

Debora Savoy – Ms. Debora is a Regional Manager in the Southern Area and the Events Sub-committee Chair. She graduated from Crossland High School and Morgan State University. When she is not working, Ms. Debora likes baking, shopping, and spending time with family and friends. When taking time off, she likes to visit warm locales. She has been working for the Commission for 34 years and on the Teen Cotillion committee for 20 plus years. Please say hi to Ms. Debora and ask her about her recent trip out of the country.

Greg Gordon – Mr. Greg is a Regional Manager in the Aquatics and Athletic Facilities Division. He graduated from HD Woodson Senior High School in Washington DC and The University of Miami, “THE U”. In his spare time, you can find Mr. Greg on or near the water. He loves boating and vacationing in the Caribbean. Mr. Greg has been working with the Commission since 1997 and has been a part of the Cotillion program since its inception. Please say hi to Mr. Greg and ask him about his boating excursions.
